Discover Your Genealogy: Twentieth Century Military Records!

On November 11, 1918, world leaders signed an armistice ending one of the bloodiest conflicts in human memory. Like other major military events in the twentieth century, this moment has been immortalized in popular culture, but there's more to this story, and it is in the letters, diaries, and journals of Soldiers, and the U.S. Army's records. Did you know these items can be the key to unlocking your family's history and can be found at the U.S. Army

Heritage and Education Center in Carlisle, Pennsylvania? On Saturday, January 23, 2016 at 10:30 a.m., USAHEC invites you to join us for our annual Genealogy Workshop, which includes a presentation and hands-on workshop about using the USAHEC Collection to discover genealogy through twentieth century military records.

The winter history program will feature an in-depth presentation by esteemed researcher and USAHEC Collection expert, Mr. Marty Andresen. A hands-on workshop will follow the presentation, focusing on how to begin researching your family's history using World War I and World War II records from the USAHEC Collection. These records include a multitude of primary sources, such as unit histories and records, photograph Collections, newspapers, and numerous manuscript collections. While this event focuses on twentieth century records, it is perfect for genealogists, researchers, and students of all experience levels and periods of interest.

This program kicks off USAHEC's Winter History Series, which highlights different eras and topics in U.S. Army history, through special lectures and hands-on workshops. The next event in this series is the 5th Annual USAHEC Re-enactor Recruitment Day, on Saturday, February 20, 2016.

The "Twentieth Century Military Records and Genealogy" event begins at 10:30 a.m. on Saturday, January 23, 2016 and is open to the public and free to attend. Participants must register to attend the event and can do so by calling: 717-245-3218 or sending an email to: usarmy.carlisle.awc.mbx.ahec-ves@mail.mil

USAHEC's exhibits, to include the "Cook Pot and Palette" art exhibit, "Treasures of USAHEC," and the Soldier Experience Gallery, will be open. Don't forget to grab lunch at Café Cumberland from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m., and feel free to browse the museum bookstore. Parking is free and the USAHEC facility is handicapped accessible. For more information about this and all other events, please visit the website: www.USAHEC.org
