Important voting information

As you likely know, 2016 is a significant election year for local, state, and federal government.

The voter registration deadline in Pennsylvania for the April 26 is March 28. The last day to request and return an absentee ballot is April 25, 2016. Be sure to allow plenty of time (more than 14 days) to process a mail-in absentee ballot.

If you want to register to vote, you can visit FVAP.gov now to complete a registration application and request your absentee ballots for the presidential primaries (P) and State primaries (S). Upcoming elections:

- * New Hampshire: February 9 (P, Tentative)
- * South Carolina: February 20 (P, Republican Primary Only)
- * South Carolina: February 27 (P, Democratic Primary Only, Tentative)

States Scheduled for Primary Elections on 1 March 2016:

- Alabama
- Arkansas
- Georgia
- Massachusetts
- Oklahoma
- Tennessee
- Texas
- Virginia
- Vermont

Please note that dates are subject to change for each of the 50 States.

The General Election date is November 8, 2016

It only takes a few quick steps to make sure your vote is counted no matter where you are in the world.

Please see attached Federal Post Card Application (FPCA) for your use. Or, you can register and request your ballots, complete the Federal Post Card Application (FPCA) using the FPCA online assistant (fvap.gov/military-voter/registration-ballots), or fill out the attached PDF file, or go on-line: (fvap.gov/uploads/FVAP/Forms/fpca2013.pdf), or pick up a hardcopy version from your Installation/Unit Voting Assistance Officer.

If you do not have access to a computer you are more than welcome to stop by Bldg 22, Room 108 to utilize a dedicated computer just for voters.

Not voting in these States? Find your State's primary election dates at FVAP.gov: Select the State you want to register to vote in from the drop-down menu at the top left-hand side of the home page. To find your State's election website for specific information on candidates, elections, contact information, and links to your local election offices, visit FVAP's contact page (fvap.gov/info/contact).

You can always get more information on the Federal Voting Assistance Program and help with the absentee voting process, by going to FVAP.gov or call FVAP at 703-588-1584 (toll free 1-800-438-VOTE or DSN 425-1584) or email (vote@fvap.gov).
