

Army War College announces new CSM, Chief of Staff, Ambassador

Army War College announces new CSM, Chief of Staff, Ambassador

The Army War College has announced new personnel in key positions at the War College who will assume their duties later this spring and summer.

Helen Reed-Rowe, has been named the new Army War College Deputy Commandant for Interagency Affairs.

A career member of the Senior Foreign Service, Reed-Rowe was sworn in on September 27, 2010 as the first U.S. Ambassador to the Republic of Palau. Her credentials were presented to President Johnson Toribiong upon her arrival in country on September 30, 2010.

Ms. Reed-Rowe served as a Senior Advisor to the Office of Performance Evaluation in the Department of State and as a Foreign Affairs Advisor from the Department of State to the Avian Influenza Action Group. Her Washington assignments include management positions in the Bureau of Near Eastern Affairs, Bureau of European Affairs and the Overseas Building

Operations. Ms. Reed-Rowe served as a Desk Officer in the Bureau of African Affairs and an Examiner on the Board of Examiners in the Bureau of Human Resources. She served a one year assignment on Capitol Hill as a Pearson Fellow. Her overseas assignments include Deputy Chief of Mission at the U.S. Embassy in Majuro, Republic of the Marshall Islands and supervisory management positions in U.S. Embassies Jamaica, Ecuador and Niger.

Reed-Rowe earned a Master's Degree in National Security and Strategic Studies from the Naval War College in Newport, Rhode Island and a Bachelor's degree from the University of Maryland. She is the mother of two children, Nikkia Rowe and Kevin Anthony Rowe.

Command Sergeant Major Malcolm D. Parrish, has been named the new Army War College Command Sergeant Major.

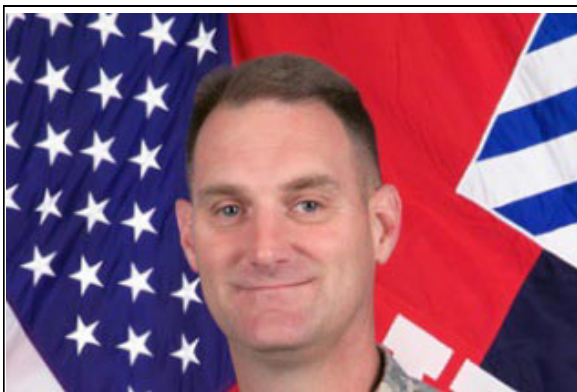

A native of Arrington, Virginia, he enlisted in the United States Army Delayed Entry Program on 16 September 1981 as an Armored Reconnaissance Specialist, MOS 19D. He entered active duty on the 2 September 1982. During his career, he has held every leadership position from Squad Leader to Command Sergeant Major, his most recent position being the Command Sergeant Major of 3rd Battalion, 66th Armor Regiment in Grafenwöhr, Germany.

His military education consists of all levels of NCOES to included being a graduate of the Naval Senior Enlisted Academy, Class 128 and the United States Army Command Sergeants Major Force Management Course. His deployments include KOSOVO KFOR-4A, OPERATION IRAQI FREEDOM II and OIF 08-10.

His military awards and decorations include the Combat Action Badge, Bronze Star-2d Award, Meritorious Service Medal-5th Award, Army Commendation Medal-5th Award, Army Achievement Medal-12th Award, Army Good Conduct Medal-10th Award, Army Superior Unit Award, Valorous Unit Award, Meritorious Unit Commendation, Driver-Mechanic Badge-W. He is also the recipient of the Order of Saint George and Saint Maurice, German Weapon Qualification Badge.

Col. Don Galli, a native of Havertown, Pennsylvania, will be the new Army War College Chief of Staff.

He graduated from East Stroudsburg University in 1986 as a Distinguished Military Graduate, and received a commission as an Aviation Officer. Upon graduation from the Aviation Officer Basic Course and the Initial Entry Rotary Wing Course, COL Galli was assigned to the 101st Airborne Division (Air Assault) at Fort Campbell, KY from 1987 to 1991. During this period,

COL Galli served as a Platoon Leader and Assistant S-3 for 4th Battalion, 101st Aviation Regiment. Additionally, he served as an Aviation Liaison Officer (BAE) in support of the 3rd Infantry Brigade, 101st Airborne Division (Air Assault) during Operations Desert Shield and Desert Storm.

After graduating from the Aviation Advanced Course in 1991, COL Galli was assigned to the 25th Infantry Division (Light), Schofield Barracks, Hawaii, where he served as Commander of A Company, 4th Battalion, 25th Aviation Regiment and as a Brigade Assistant S-3, 25th Aviation Brigade.

After serving in Hawaii, COL Galli was assigned to the John F. Kennedy Special Warfare center at Fort Bragg, North Carolina where he earned a master's degree in International Relations and graduated from the Civil Affairs and Psychological Operations Advanced Course. He later served as an Aviation Training Team Leader for Reserve Component Aviation Units at Readiness Group Sheridan, Fort Sheridan, Illinois.

Upon graduation from the Command and General Staff College in 1999, COL Galli was assigned to the 101st Airborne Division (Air Assault) as the S3 of the 4th Battalion, 101st Aviation Regiment and the Brigade Executive Officer of the 159th Aviation Brigade. He later served as the Aide De Camp and Executive Officer for the Commanding General, First United States Army at Fort Gillem, Georgia. From 2004 to 2007, COL Galli was assigned as to the 101st Airborne Division (Air Assault) at Fort Campbell, KY as the Commander of 5th Battalion, 101st Aviation Regiment (OIF IV). After battalion command, COL Galli attended the United States Naval Warfare College where he earned a master's degree in National Security and Strategic Studies. COL Galli is currently the commander of the 3rd Combat Aviation Brigade, 3rd Infantry Division.

Colonel Galli's awards and decorations include the Bronze Star Medal (2 OLC), Meritorious Service Medal (2 OLC), Air Medal (2nd award), Army Commendation Medal (3 OLC), Army Achievement Medal (3 OLC), Humanitarian Service Medal, Master Army Aviator Badge, Combat Action Badge, Parachutist Badge, and the Air Assault Badge.