

Baltic Defence College leadership meets with War College experts

Baltic Defence College leadership meets with War College experts

Maj. Gen. Vitalijus Vaiksnoras, takes a look at the Soldiers Experience exhibit at the Army Heritage and Education Center during a visit by the Baltic Defence College April 9.

Lithuanian Army Maj. Gen. Vitalijus Vaiksnoras, Commandant of the Baltic Defence College in Tartu, Estonia, visited Carlisle Barracks April 9 for a visit focused on gathering "best practices" in professional military education and expanding cooperation between the Baltic Defence College and the U.S. Army War College.

Vaiksnoras met with leaders from the Senior Leader Resiliency Office, the Center for Strategic Leadership and Development, the International Fellows Program, and the Department of Distance Education, held a lengthy round-table discussion with this year's International Fellows from Lithuania, Latvia and Estonia and visited the U.S. Army Heritage and Education Center.