

Firefighters on duty: fire house Open House and the popular Kids' Fire

Firefighters on duty: fire house Open House and the popular Kids' Fire Academy will take place

The Carlisle Barracks Fire Department is fully operational during the government shutdown. Safety and security operations are excepted from furlough.

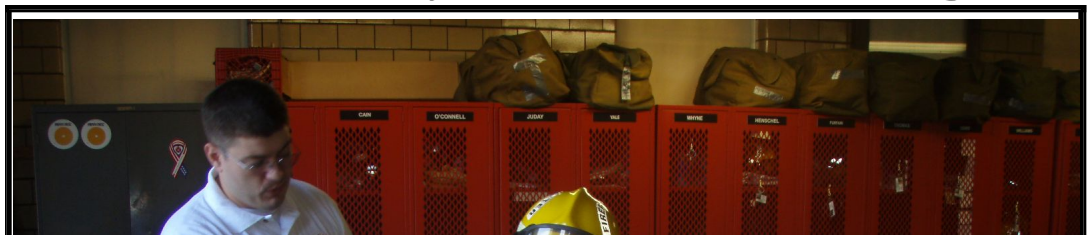

These October events will occur as scheduled to introduce military families to the Carlisle Barracks firefighters and pass on smart safety tips:

* Fire Department

Open House, Thursday, Oct. 10, 6:30 - 8:30 p.m.

Open to everyone, the Open House includes fire house tours, introduction to fire apparatus/ equipment displays. You'll learn about the fire department's response capabilities and general fire prevention tips.

* Kids Fire Academy, for children ages 6-13, two dates

-- Sat, Oct. 5 --
fully booked

-- Sat, Oct. 19 --
added by popular demand: 9 - 11
a.m.

-- Sat, Oct. 19 --
added: 1 - 3 p.m.

Each session

offers the same information and experience for kids to learn about fire prevention, use fire hose to spray water, crawl through a training maze, use a fire extinguisher, and several other fire department related activities.

Space is limited to 20 children per session.

Call ahead to sign children up for one or the other session, using the fire station's business number, 717.245.4419.

U.S. Army War College Archives - News Article - 03 October 2013