

Pirates to Invade Indian Field

Pirates to Invade Indian Field

Avast Ye, Me Hearties! This year's 2017 Air/Shipwreck ball will be held on Sep. 30 at 5:30 p.m. and will go on until the last lawn chair is folded up on Indian Field. All Army War College students, faculty and Families are invited to have some fun and make memories in the process.

This year's theme is: Pirates, so get your best swashbuckling garb and pirate do-dads for your chance to win prizes for best seminar table decorations and costumes. Also, for you college football fans, a big screen television will be on the field so Friday night's game between #7 Stanford and #9 Washington will not be missed.

Tickets are on sale now, see a seminar rep. or go by the Root Hall Deli to purchase yours. Ticket prices are: $20 for adults, $12 for the ages from 5 to 12 and free for those younger than 5. The menu for the event is fried chicken, bratwurst, hot dogs and BBQ with assorted fixings, desserts and drinks.

Live music will be provided by the North Mountain Ramblers.

The event is coordinated by Air Force and Navy resident students and is meant as opportunity for families to be together in a relaxing atmosphere after spending months apart.
