

Retiree Appreciation Day set for Oct. 8

Retiree Appreciation Day set for Oct. 8

Military Retiree Appreciation Day at Carlisle Barracks will take place Sat., Oct. 8 from 7:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. and many events are scheduled to share important command information briefings for military retirees, family members, survivors, and those who will retire soon.

Registration opens at 7:30 -- with retirement benefits offered throughout the day

- ID cards: Anny Ely Hall, 8:30 a.m. to 2 p.m.
- Mini-health screening in Root Hall Gym, all day
- Flu shots will be available in the Root Hall Gym. ID cards will be required to verify eligibility.
- A TRICARE representative will be available in Reynolds Theater to answer questions.
- Dunham Pharmacy will be open 7:30 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.
- Commissary open 9 a.m. - 5 p.m.
- Exchange open 9 a.m. - 6 p.m.

Briefing schedule:

- Keynote address: Maj. Gen. Bill Rapp, Army War College Commandant, 9:20 a.m.
- Dunham Army Health Clinic update: 10:10 a.m.
- TRICARE briefings: 10:45 a.m. (TRICARE-FOR-LIFE: Bliss Hall; Under-65: Reynolds Theater)
- Retiree Council presentation: 1:05 p.m.
- Legal Briefing: 1:50 p.m.
- Exchange and Commissary updates: 1:20 p.m.
- Veterans Affairs benefits briefing: 2:05 p.m.

For more information visit <http://carlislebarracks.carlisle.army.mil/rso.htm>