

'Heart of Carlisle Barracks' honored at awards ceremony

'Heart of Carlisle Barracks' honored at awards ceremony

Maj. Gen. Bill Rapp, Army War College Commandant, addresses a packed Letort View Community Center Nov. 15 during the Installation Awards Ceremony.

Carlisle Barracks is often called “the most strategic 500 acres in the Army,” not just because it’s home to the Army War College, but because it is home to some of the best and brightest Soldiers and employees in the Army, according to installation leadership.

The post took time Nov. 14 to recognize the hard work and dedication of some of those employees at an awards ceremony hosted by Maj. Gen. Bill Rapp, Army War College Commandant, in the Letort View Community Center.

The packed LVCC saw the awarding of numerous servicemembers and employees, including the civilian and Soldier of the Quarter Awards.

Spc. Isaac Gonzales, Environmental Health Technicon at Dunham Health Clinic was named the Carlisle Barracks Soldier of the Year, FY 16 for his hard work, determination and dedication to exceed standards.

Spc. Stefanie Otley, Preventative Medicine Specialist, Dunham Clinic was named the Carlisle Barracks Soldier of the Quarter, 3rdQuarter, FY 16, for her hard work, determination and dedication to exceed standards.

Donna Ferry, an education technician for the USAWC Department of Military Strategy, Planning and Operations, was awarded the Civilian Employee of the Quarter Award, 3rdQuarter, FY 16. She was recognized for her efforts to administer all aspects of the Advanced Strategic Studies program ranging from travel arrangements to close editing program of instruction syllabi and supporting the ASPA students involved in servant who has made every job immeasurably easier and is always looking for ways to help the entire SMSPO faculty and students,” said her award citation. William (Bill) Berger, Occupational Health Nurse, Dunham Clinic, was also nominated for the award.

Integrated Research Projects. “Donna is a selfless

Todd Wheeler, Operations Chief, U.S. Army Garrison Directorate of Plans, Training, Mobilizations and Security, was awarded the Civilian Employee of the Quarter Award, 4th Quarter, FY 16. Wheeler was recognized for his efforts with the after duty hours watch officer program, which led to improved efficiency, developed a Watch Officer SOP, and has fostered a very positive relationships with all the mission partners on Carlisle Barracks which has vastly improved the Garrison’s ability to support critical operations. Christopher Johnson, System Administrator for CSL, Leann Fawver, Archivist for the Army Heritage and Education Center, Wendy LeBlanc, Operations Officer-It Manager, CSL, Michael Kelly, Supply Technician, CSL and Jaime Gordon, Supervisor Medical Technologist Dunham Clinic were all nominated for the award.

A number of special awards were also handed out.

Terry Phoenix, Supervisory Instructional Systems Specialist, with the Department of Distance Education, received the Commander’s Award for Civilian Service for her leadership and management skills and working tirelessly to ensure that all DDE courses were published on time. She has also led the development of a program to match the Joint Program for Military Education, Phase II objective to DDE requirements.

Dr. Thomas Galvin, Professor of Resource Management, Department of Command, Leadership and Management, received the Achievement Medal for Civilian Service for his work in support of the Collaborative Academic Institutional Review board. His work helped develop crucial polices for the USAWC.

Chiquita Morrison, Education and Training Technician, Department of Command, Leadership and Management, received the Achievement Medal for Civilian Service for her work in department for the previous six months.

Cora Johnson, Financial Readiness Program Manager and Army Emergency Relief Officer, Army Community Services, received an IMCOM Certificate of Achievement for her commitment to Soldiers, family members and civilians through the development and implementation of new financial assistance programs.

Heather Nickel, a volunteer with Army Community Services, received a Garrison Certificate of Appreciation for her efforts with the Family Advocacy, Exceptional family Member and Relocation Programs.

U.S. Army War College Archives - News Article

- 18 November 2016