

Commissary honors employee for 50 years of service

By Thomas Zimmerman 02 October 2018

David Dellinger has been a bagger at the Carlisle Barracks Commissary for 50 years and was honored with a plaque, a flag flown over Carlisle Barracks and a coin from the Garrison Command team.

Commissary and Carlisle Barracks leadership had the rare opportunity Friday to honor an employee for 50 years of service. David Dellinger has been a bagger at the Carlisle Barracks Commissary for 50 years and was honored with a plaque, a flag flown over Carlisle Barracks and a coin from the Garrison Command team.

When Dellinger was 16-years-old he was in a program that placed six men with special needs into the Commissary as baggers.

"I just do my job and try and be respectful and helpful for every customer I bag groceries for," he said. He joked that he hoped to work at the commissary for another 50 years.