It is with great sadness that Colonel Stanimir Hristov (USAWC 2016) of the Bulgarian Army announces the passing of his brother, Colonel Neno Hristov (USAWC 2011). Neno passed quietly and unexpectedly on Wednesday, 21 November 2018, according to Stanimir, who wished that seminar and community colleagues be advised.

Neno Hristov is survived by his wife, Aneliya, and his son, Hristo.

"Colonel Hristov was an integral part of the International Fellows community and the resident class of 2011," said Prof. George Wood. "He is remembered fondly by his classmates and will be sorely missed."

The USAWC community sends their deepest condolences to his family and is deeply saddened by his loss.
