

Donald W. Koran has been the diplomatic advisor to the Commandant of the Army War College since July 2018. Prior to that he held senior positions at the U.S. Africa Command from January 2015 to May 2018.

A career member of the Department of State Senior Foreign Service, class of Minister-Counselor, Ambassador Koran served as the Ambassador to Rwanda from August 2011 to January 2015. He has also served as the Deputy Chief of Mission in Rwanda from 1999 to 2001 and in Niger from 2006 to 2008. His other assignments include Cuba, Venezuela, Madagascar, Togo, and Morocco, as well as in the State Department's bureaus of African Affairs, International Organization Affairs, and Intelligence and Research.

Ambassador Koran has a B.A. from the University of Texas, and M.A. and Ph.D. degrees from the Johns Hopkins University, all in economics. He is married and the father of two daughters.