For the second time in less than a week, a command exchange hands on the historic parade grounds of Carlisle Barracks.

Lt. Col. Michael Belenky assumed command of Dunham U.S. Army Health Clinic from Col. Becky Porter at a change of command ceremony June 16 at 11 a.m. at Wheelock Bandstand on Carlisle Barracks. Col. Laura Trinkle, the MEDDAC Commander at Fort George G. Meade, Md., was the officiating officer for the ceremony.

Belenky most recently served as the Medical Operations and Readiness Officer at The Joint Staff J-4, Health Services Division, in Washington D.C. He is a graduate of the Virginia Military Institute and the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. His Army assignments include Ft. Bragg, North Carolina, Fort Campbell, Kentucky

The outgoing commander, Col. Rebecca Porter, will next assume command of the DiLorenzo TRICARE Health Clinic in the Pentagon. Reflecting on her time in command she said that will never forget the hard work and dedication the people who work at the clinic.

“I’m most proud of the positive spirit and customer service at Dunham,” she said. “It is felt, not only among our staff, but by our patients and in how we interact with our neighbors and colleagues on the installation.”

The Dunham Health Care Network includes clinics at Carlisle Barracks, the Defense Distribution Center near the Harrisburg Airport, the Letterkenny Army Depot in Chambersburg, and the National Guard Training Center at Fort Indiantown Gap. The Network provides care to more than 5,700 retirees and their family members and over 4,900 active duty Soldiers and their family members, a total of approximately 10,600.

Dunham is a member of the TRICARE Northeast Region and the Walter Reed Health Care System, which partners with HealthNet to provide care to the many beneficiaries in the Region. The renovated health clinic is staffed with nine Officers, 23 Soldiers, and 127 civilians and contractors.

Services offered include family medicine, pediatrics, optometry, social work and behavioral health, occupational health, and industrial hygiene. In addition, Dunham offers immunization, laboratory, radiology, and pharmacy support. A Soldier medical
