

Loudspeaker system testing set for June 24, 25

Loudspeaker system testing set for June 24, 25

Carlisle Barracks will test their loudspeaker mass notification system June 24 and 25 in order to assess any possible damage from recent severe weather. During both days, you may hear test tones and voice commands, but they are for testing purposes only, no action is needed on your part.