ACS 50th Birthday Celebration July 31, 4 - 7 p.m. Pool Pavilion

Army Community Services will celebrate their 50th birthday at the Pool Pavilion. Come join them for free food, ice cream, games for kids, free neck/shoulder massages, and giveaways including tickets to Hershey Park and the LVCC and Tiki Bar. The pool will be open for free as well.

In order to prepare for the event, all ACS offices will be closed July 31.

ACS is celebrating their 50th year of providing programs that help improve the readiness, resilience and self-sufficiency of the Total Army Family worldwide. For more information on ACS services here visit <http://carlislebarracks.carlisle.army.mil/acs/>

A large informational graphic for ACS's 50th anniversary. At the top left is the "50 Years of Service" logo. The main headline reads: "1965 'IF THE ARMY WANTED YOU TO HAVE A FAMILY IT WOULD HAVE ISSUED YOU ONE' Changing attitudes, changing needs: By the Vietnam era, a significant number of Soldiers had Families. They faced typical problems—financial, medical and personal—and the stresses of wartime service. In 1965, the Army created a structured program to help commanders maintain readiness by delivering services promoting Family self-reliance, resiliency and stability during war and peace: Army Community Service." Below this is a quote: "'THE STRENGTH OF THE NATION IS THE ARMY. THE STRENGTH OF THE ARMY IS THE SOLDIER. THE STRENGTH OF THE SOLDIER IS THE FAMILY.'" attributed to Gen. Ray Odierno, 38th Chief of Staff of the Army. The year "2015" is prominently displayed on the right. The bottom section features three program highlights: 1. "Since 1979 ■ Exceptional Family Member Program Established as the Handicapped Dependents Program. Provides comprehensive and coordinated services to special needs Families." with a photo of a family. 2. "Since 1984 ■ Financial Readiness Program Offers training and counseling on saving, debt elimination, investing and goal setting." with a photo of a couple and a testimonial: "She assisted us with several financial issues to include travel debts, student loans going into default, and a lot of other mistakes we made when we were young. We've reduced our debt by over $16,000. My husband's credit scores have improved 126 points in one year, rising from 513 to...". 3. "Since 1993 ■ Army Family Team Building Trains Family members in self-reliance and helps them understand Army culture" with a photo of a woman and a testimonial: "Marie Balocki began as a volunteer in the Army Family Team Building program in 1993. As her family changed duty stations, she continued to volunteer. Today she holds the highest civilian general schedule rank, GS-15, as executive director for the Department of Defense."

Office for Reintegration Programs. "I can't get across the impact that volunteering in ACS has had on my life. The foundation that I have gotten is what has given me the confidence to apply for each step I have taken. I would not be sitting here but for the skills I acquired and the folks that mentored me along the way."

Since 2002 ■ Employment Readiness Program Serves family members, active, Reserve and Guard Soldiers, wounded warriors, retirees, Army civilians

"Sincerely, the Employment Readiness Program Manager, gave me the confidence to shoot a little higher and apply for jobs that, at first, I thought were out of my experience range. She told me to volunteer because that will help me broaden my job experience and she was right! My volunteer experience is why I was offered the job!"

Valerie Collins, Fort Polk, Louisiana

Since 2004 ■ Victim Advocacy Program Provides non-clinical advocacy services and support to victims of domestic violence and sexual assault

"When the day came that my husband crossed a line we could never come back from, the victim advocates at Fort Stewart, Georgia, became the only lifeline I could hold onto. Going to court with me, calling to make sure I was okay, and valiantly fighting for my rights made all the difference in me getting through it. When we got our letter approving us for Transitional Compensation, it saved our lives. My children and I now have an actual chance at regaining our lives. I had been certain everyone had completely forgotten we existed. Thank you so much for proving me wrong. Thank you so much for giving me my life back and my children a chance at happiness again."

Since 2008 ■ Soldier and Family Assistance Center Supports Warriors in Transition and their Families in a consolidated facility

"We first heard about the SEAC when we went to the Warrior Transition Battalion on Fort Bragg. The SEAC set us up with childcare during my husband's medical appointments, and they also planned activities to make our Family Day special. We would still be lost in the dark if it wasn't for their help and assistance."

LIEUTENANT COLONEL EMMA MARIE BAIRD

Lt. Col. Emma Marie Baird is considered the mother of ACS. During her 24-year military career, she served in the Women's Army Corps, worked in Army Emergency Relief during WWII, and became the first woman assigned to the U.S. Military Academy staff. Because of her experience in AER, she was selected to create the Army's official Family assistance program in the early 1960s. After her retirement in 1968, Baird remained active with ACS programs throughout the country - especially at Fort Bliss, Texas, where she regularly volunteered her time. She passed away in 1987.
