Outdoor movie on Indian Field set for Aug. 21

Grab your lawn chairs, blankets, pack a cooler and come out to Indian Field Aug. 21 for an only at Carlisle event, an outdoor showing of the movie classic, Jim Thorpe: All American. The event is open to the entire Carlisle Community, including the general public.

While meeting more of your neighbors, you can relax and enjoy the evening while learning more about one of the most famous athletes of the 20th Century, who spent many years at Carlisle Barracks as a student at the Carlisle Indian Industrial School.

All attendees will receive a free pack of candy and popcorn and drinks will be available. All bags and coolers are subject to inspection. The movie is set to start at dusk, approximately 8:15 p.m. The “doors” will open at 7 p.m.

The movie is the kick-off of the Army War College Strategic Art Film Program, which is sponsored by the Association of the United States Army and the Army Heritage Center Foundation.
