

Honoring faculty excellence at the Army War College

Honoring faculty excellence at the Army War College

6 members of the U.S. Army War College faculty were presented awards that recognized their diverse expertise and research and writing skills during the faculty council meeting in Wil Washcoe, Root Hall, Aug. 25.

- ARCOM for winning the Excellence-in-Teaching Award: Cols Brian Maddox, Director of Military History and Strategy, Tarn Warren, Department of Military Strategy, Planning and Operations and Fred Gellert, instructor in the Department of Command, Leadership, and Management (Fred is now a Title 10 faculty member.) Excellence in Teacher is determined by Student feedback, peer feedback, and personal observation by department chair, dean or director comprise the evaluation criteria for the new faculty awards in teaching excellence.

From left to right, Maj. Gen. William E. Rapp, Commandant U.S. Army War College, Fred Gellert, Brian Maddox, Col. Tarn Warren, Col. and Lance Betros, Provost stand with award winners, Wil Washcoe, Root Hall, Aug. 25

- Military faculty stabilization: Col. Karl D.

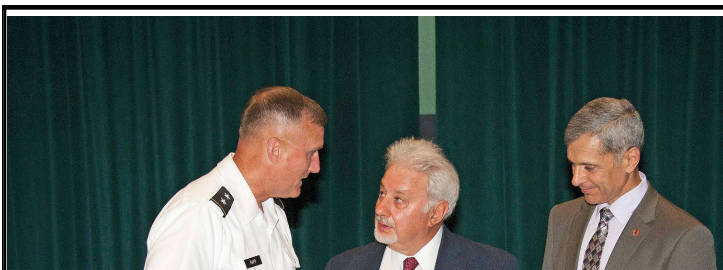

Bopp (pronounced Bope), Director of the Distance Education Strategic Leadership Course of the United States Army War College,

From left to right, Maj. Gen. William E. Rapp, Commandant U.S. Army War College, Col. Karl D. Bopp and Lance Betros, Provost, Wil Washcoe, Root Hall, Aug. 25

- Excellence-in-Scholarship (Madigan) Award: Dr. Kevin Weddle (Kevin also received a cash prize from the Foundation.) The Madigan Award is intended to encourage and recognize published writing on national security issues. The competition is open to all current staff and faculty members of the U.S. Army War College.

From left to right, Maj. Gen. William E. Rapp, Commandant U.S. Army War College, Dr. Kevin Weddle and Lance Betros, Provost, Wil Washcoe, Root Hall, Aug. 25

- Distinguished Fellow: Dr. Gabriel Marcella

(Gabriel was nominated by GEN(R) Fred Woerner, a USAWC Distinguished Fellow. Gabriel served in SSI and DNSS.) Dr. Gabriel Marcella retired in 2008 as Professor of Third World Studies and Director of the Americas Studies in the Department of National Security and Strategy at the U.S. Army War

College. During his government career he served as International Affairs Advisor to the Commander in Chief, United States Southern Command. Dr. Marcella has written extensively on Latin American security issues and U.S. policy.

From left to right, Maj. Gen. William E. Rapp, Commandant U.S. Army War College, Dr. Gabriel Marcella and Lance Betros, Provost, Wil Washcoe, Root Hall, Aug. 25

U.S. Army War College Archives - News Article - 26 August 2015