IF Class of 2010 donates tree to commemorate time here

A Norwegian Red Maple tree donated by the International Fellows Class of 2010 was planted near Indian Field May 26 as a way to commemorate their time at the Army War College. The Fellows commissioned a plaque near the tree that reads: Presented to the US Army War College, the Class of 2010 International Fellows "A Lasting Coalition in the Service of Peace".

There are 50 International Fellows in the USAWC Class of 2010 including officers from Albania, Australia, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Botswana, Brazil, Canada, Chile, Colombia, Croatia, Czech Republic, Denmark, Egypt, El Salvador, Finland, Georgia, Germany, India, Indonesia, Iraq, Israel, Italy, Japan, Jordan, Kazakhstan, Korea, Macedonia, Malaysia, Mali, Moldova, Mongolia, Morocco, Nepal, Netherlands, Norway, Pakistan (2), Philippines, Poland, Qatar, Republic of Congo, Romania, Saudi Arabia, Serbia, Taiwan, Tanzania, Thailand, Turkey, Ukraine, United Kingdom and Yemen.
