

Distance Class of 2010 reports for final resident session

Distance Class of 2010 reports for final resident session

Members of the Army War College Distance Education Class of 2010 reported July 12 for their final two-week resident course. Highlighted by events like the Gettysburg Staff Ride, Strategy Implementation Seminar and graduation, this resident course serves as the capstone for the two-year distance education program.

Watch for photos to be posted throughout the next two weeks, capturing the DDE Class of 2010s Second Resident Course here

You can also stay on top of all the Army War College news on our Facebook page at www.facebook.com/usawc