

Carlisle Barracks honors the best

Staff Sgt. Corey Baltos, USAWC Public Affairs

Carlisle Barracks honors the best

Lt. Col. Janet Holliday, garrison commander, presents Chris Browne, the civilian employee of the 3rd quarter, 2010, with a clock while Maj. Gen. Gregg Martin, USAWC Commandant, presents him with the Achievement Medal for Civilian Service.

Photo by: Megan Clugh

Carlisle Barracks honored its best employees at the first quarter 2011, Instillation awards ceremony, held at the LVCC on Nov. 5. Maj. Gen. Gregg Martin, USAWC Commandant officiated the ceremony.

“The USAWC is a ‘team of teams’,” said Martin. “They are the best people I have ever worked with.”

Civilian employee of the quarter, 3rd quarter 2010– R. Christopher Browne

Chris Browne, the PKSOI publications coordinator, was awarded the Achievement Medal for Civilian Service for his dedication and outstanding contributions to his job.

Four Carlisle Barracks employees were recognized for their contribution to the garrison and the Army War College.

Randy L. Carpenter, HRD Human Resources Specialist, was given the Commander’s Award for Civilian Service. Over the past five years Carpenter has continuously exceeded Department of the Army standards by processing over 600 evaluations and over 1,000 awards with a 99 percent timeliness rate and a 100 percent accuracy rate.

Karen R. Wright, DFMWR Financial Management Technician, was given the Achievement Medal for Civilian Service. In August and September 2010, Wright took charge of coordinating the move of the entire staff of the directorate of FMWR. While doing this she also kept the financial management division working.

1st Sgt. Carlos Runnels, Headquarters and Headquarters Company, was given a certificate of appreciation from the Association of the U.S. Army for his outstanding service and dedication in support of the Carlisle Barracks/Cumberland Valley chapter of AUSA. Runnels was responsible for greatly increasing membership among the junior enlisted Soldiers.

Mark Rathgeber, Lead Sales Clerk for the U.S. Postal Services working with the Carlisle Barracks Postal Annex was given a USAG certificate of appreciation for his support, professional knowledge, and team-oriented attitude.

“When you go into the post office to mail something, Mark will tell you the best way to package it and the fastest and cheapest way to send it,” said Lt. Col. Janet Holliday, Garrison Commander.

Commanding General Bonus Program Awards

Jessie Faller-Parrett, AHEC Chief, Education Services, was given the award for developing and implementing the new AHEC social media websites. This provided AHEC with the means to share their collection of information, exhibits, and events with the world.

George (J.R.) L. Frame, Jr., DPTMS Operations Assistant, was given the award for reorganizing and upgrading the DPTMS portal page to make it more navigable, user friendly and secure.

Daniel L. Koss, CSL Administrative Assistant. From April to Sept. 2010, Koss served as the administrative assistant for the USAWC support branch and for the operations and gaming division of the Center for Strategic Leadership. He made sure all administrative requirements were executed efficiently for both organizations.

Danielle M. Lenox, DDE Education Technician. Lenox, who was hired to provide administrative support to the first year DDE students, automated many tracking programs within first year studies and helped implement the first DDE effective writing program.

Rita Rummel, SSI Publication Assistant. Over a period of six months Rummel prepared forty-six manuscripts for publishing which comprised a total of 5,203 pages. This six month total exceeded the annual total of 14 of the last 16 years.

Length of Service Awards

Rhonda D. Newcomer, CPAC Human Resource Specialist, 30 years.

Chris Reitman, DFMWR marketing Manager, 15 years.

U.S. Army War College Archives - News Article - 08 November 2010