

Carlisle Barracks celebrates family fun

Staff Sgt. Corey Baltos, Army War College Public Affairs

Carlisle Barracks celebrates family fun

A Carlisle Barracks family returns to earth after their balloon ride.

To celebrate Military Family Appreciation Month the Carlisle Barracks Child Youth and School Services held a Military Family Fun Day on Nov. 14 at Indian Field. The event featured tethered balloon rides, pony rides and paint ball games.

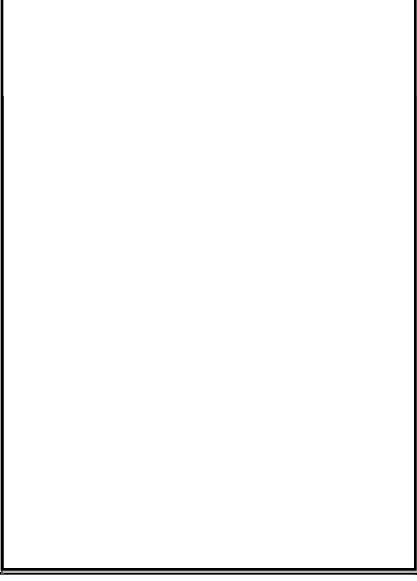

The balloon ride, which had originally been scheduled for Oktoberfest, was a big draw.

"While we got off to a slow start with the Hot Air Balloon Rides because of some small wind gusts, we were able to get everyone up in the balloon before dark," said Bob Salviano, CYSS program manager. "We had almost 180 kids and adults take advantage of this unusual event."

It turned out to be a very nice Sunday afternoon for families at Carlisle Barracks," said Salviano.

As a safety precaution, all participants in the paintball course were required to wear helmets and chest protectors. Approximately 80 people participated in the paintball course.

U.S. Army War College Archives - News Article - 15 November 2010