

Carlisle Barracks Oktoberfest equals family fun

Carlisle Barracks Oktoberfest equals family fun

Maj. Gen. Gregg Martin, USAWC Commandant, hoists the first beer after the tapping of the keg during the Carlisle Barracks Oktoberfest Oct. 15. Martin was joined by German Col. Jens Koltermann, an International Fellow in the Class of 2012. Want more photos?

Carlisle Barracks hosted Oktoberfest at the Army Heritage and Education Center Oct. 15. The traditional German salute to fall at the Carlisle Barracks Oktoberfest included fun for all ages -- a 5-10K Volksmarch, food and craft vendors, free kids games and activities, the traditional fest tent with Oompah music, soccer, contests, hot air balloon rides, Cheap Sneakers Rock Band, and more.

Marine Corps Lt. Col. Kenneth Kassner and his family, Lisa, Kurt, Erich, Alekzander, and Khristopher pose for a photo during the event.

Kassner is a member of the USAWC Class of 2012.

U.S. Army War College Archives - News Article - 14
October 2011

