

USAWC Public Affairs Office wins awards

USAWC Public Affairs Office wins awards

The U.S. Army Installation Management Command announced that the Army War College Public Affairs office won six of the IMCOM-level Maj. Gen. Keith L. Ware public affairs communications awards Feb. 21.

The awards were:

1st place, Web Site www.carlisle.army.mil

1st place, Personality Feature Article (military author], Staff Sgt. Corinna Baltos, "Skies are not the Limit: World War II veteran celebrates 90th birthday with a tandem jump at USAHEC"

2nd place, Community Relations Special Event, Army Heritage Days

3rd place, News Article/civilian author, Suzanne Reynolds, "Indian general, USAWC Class of 2001 grad, inducted into IF Hall of Fame"

3rd place, Picture Page/ military photographer, Staff Sgt. Corinna Baltos: "Welcome to Carlisle!"

Honorable Mention, Photograph/Military photographer, Staff Sgt. Corinna Baltos, "Chest Bump"

The Office of the Chief of Public Affairs conducts the Maj. Gen. Keith L. Ware Public Affairs Competition annually in order to recognize, cultivate and inspire excellence within the Army Public Affairs community and is open to both Soldiers and Department of the Army civilian employees.

Maj. Gen. Keith L. Ware was an Army officer who received the Medal of Honor in World War II and was killed in action while commanding a division during the Vietnam War.