

9/11 observance set for Friday at Army War College

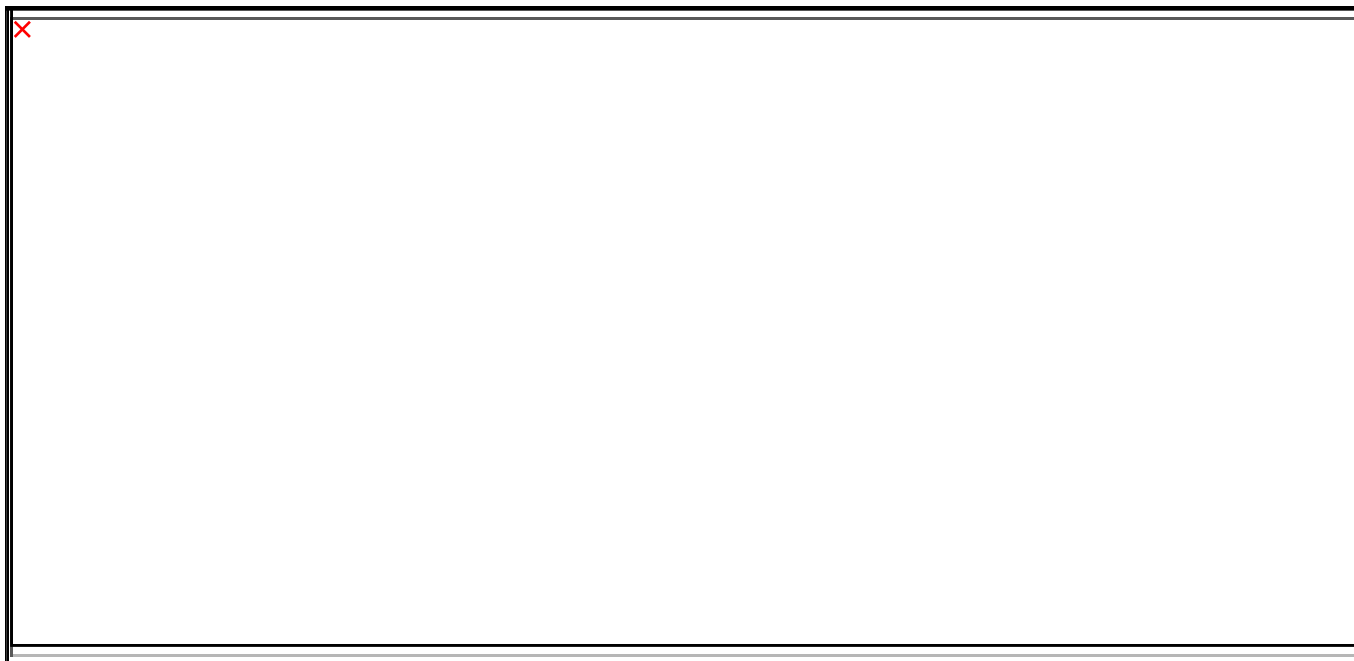

9/11 observance set for Friday at Army War College

The short ceremony will start at 8:30 a.m. on Friday, Sep. 11 in front of Root Hall. The audience will include military officers and civilian leaders who have spent a good portion of their careers responding to the Sept. 11 attacks.

Key elements of the ceremony:

- Retired Lt. Gen. Thomas G. Rhame will offer brief remarks.
- The civilians, police, firefighters, emergency medical responders, and Soldiers who responded to the tragedies of Sep. 11, 2001, will be represented in tolling the bell for the fallen.
- Taps will follow a reading of the Army War College alumni killed in the events of 9/11 and in conflict since then.
- Retired Lt. Gen. Rhame, Maj. Gen. Rapp and CSM Martinez will lay a memorial wreath.

Rhame is the chairman of the Army War College Foundation Board. He served 34 years in the U.S. Army, retiring in 1997 from his last assignment as the Director of the Defense Security Assistance Agency.

File photo

U.S. Army War College Archives - News Article - 10 September 2015