Native Pride Dancers

Traditional Dance Demonstration

1900-2000
USAHEC
Multipurpose Room

For questions or more information, please call: 717-245-3972

These traditional native dancers will demonstrate ceremonial and social dancing techniques passed down from their ancestors for centuries. The demonstration will include authentic dress, free-style movements, and sacred songs, enhanced by indigenous vocal and flute music from the Northern Plains.

Each tribe maintains traditions and culture through many distinct styles of dance. The Native Pride Dancers are "passionately devoted to keeping traditions alive," and their mission is to "educate, inspire, motivate, and empower diverse communities to bridge cultural gaps through Indigenous traditions." For additional background on the Native Pride Dancers, please visit their website: <http://www.nativepridearts.org/>.

This event is open to the public and FREE to attend. For directions, more information, and a complete schedule of USAHEC events, please visit: www.usahec.org or call: 717-245-3972.
