Registration open for spouses' leadership workshop: FLAGS

Dec. 11, 2015 -- Registration is now open for the USAWC FLAGS Workshop, "Facilitating Leadership and Group Skills," sponsored by the Center for Strategic Leadership.

The workshop uses a small group setting for participants to actively engage in learning experiences. The objectives are to increase self-awareness and improve group leadership skills, through sessions designed to --

- o understand one's own behavior;
- o understand group and family members
- o explore positive leadership, team-building, and communication skills.

Interested? Registration is on a first-come, first-served basis, through Lisa Riley of the USAWC Military Family Program: lisa.m.riley.ctr@mail.mil or 717.245.4787. Contact Lisa with your preference for one or both workshops, each offered twice --

FLAGS PART 1. Self-Awareness workshop, Tuesday, Feb. 16 OR Thursday, Feb 18 -- from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

FLAGS PART 2. Communication, Leadership & the Group Dynamic, T-W-Th, March 1-3 OR T-W-Th, March 15-17 -- from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. each day.

NOTE: The FLAGS Certificate will be awarded to those who participate in both workshops, but registration for one workshop of choice is an option.

FLAGS is a Military Family Member program, a series of educational opportunities offered for personal and professional development of Army War College student spouses, complementing the students' professional education.
