

Carlisle Barracks to recognize Military Families Nov. 30

Carlisle Barracks to recognize Military Families Nov. 30

Army Community Services will set aside Friday, November 30 to recognize Military Families' contributions and commitment to family, community, and nation.

From 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., at 632 Wright Avenue, ACS will offer to military spouses their thanks, camaraderie over refreshments, and ACS representatives will introduce families to family resources --

O ACS Master Resiliency Trainer will help spouses use and understand the Global Assessment Tool

O ACS financial counselor will pull free credit report and free score

O ACS employment counselor will offer tips and leads for holiday employment

O AND, enjoy friendship over pulled pork, chili, hotdogs, soda, and coffee.
