

USAWC International Fellows share experiences with local community

Army War College International Fellows share their U.S. experiences and information on their home countries

Colonels Solomon Udounwa from Nigeria and Nicolaas Vanderzee from the Netherlands spoke to members of the College-Community Partners on Apr. 4 at the Carlisle Borough Hall.

Udounwa and Vanderzee shared their U.S./Carlisle experiences and their country's politics, demographics, culture and issues and answered a myriad of questions.

