Medal of Honor Society hosting annual convention in Gettysburg

This week 48 recipients of the Medal of Honor, the top award for valor in the U.S. military, will gather in Gettysburg for their annual meeting. Recipients from World War II to current operations in Afghanistan are expected to be in attendance.

In addition to their meetings, the attendees will also be able to view various historical displays provided by the Army Heritage and Education Center. 12 displays highlighting Medal of Honor recipients from various services from the Spanish American War to the present and a video displaying photos and information on the living Medal of Honor recipients attending the conference are just some of what attendees will see.
