

Medal of Honor Recipient meets with Carlisle High School Students

Medal of Honor Recipient meets with Carlisle High School Students

Medal of Honor recipient, retired Lt. General Robert Foley meets with 31 Carlisle Area School District student leaders of a social studies class for a unique discussion about character and character development. The students were selected by each of the social studies teachers at the high school. Each teacher selected two or three students based on their leadership roles and active participation within student organizations at the high school.

Foley was honored by the nation with the Medal of Honor for conspicuous gallantry and intrepidity at the risk of his life as an Infantry Captain in Vietnam, Nov. 5, 1966. He is among the elite corps of Medal of Honor recipients meeting Sep 18-22 at Gettysburg for the annual Medal of Honor Society Convention; their legacy is the group's Character Development Program to inspire American youth to be great citizens of their communities, their country and the world.

