

International Hall of Fame Inducts General Humberto Oviedo

International Hall of Fame Inducts General Humberto

Oviedo

May 12, 2014 – Gen. Humberto Oviedo, Commander-in-Chief of the Chilean Army, was inducted into the International Hall of Fame at the U.S. Army War College, Carlisle, Pa.

The War College leadership, staff, faculty, students and distinguished visitors honored Oviedo, a 2000 USAWC graduate and the 48th international fellow to be inducted.

Oviedo began his military career as a cadet in the Chilean Military Academy. Showing great promise early on, in 1978 he was selected to participate in a student exchange program with the U.S. Military Academy at West Point and subsequently graduated at the top of his class in Chile. Oviedo is also a graduate of the Chilean Army War College, holds three master's degrees and a Certificate of International and National Security for Senior Government Executives from the John F. Kennedy School at Harvard University.

Of his Army War College experience, Oviedo said, "Returning here today brings back many beautiful memories." He said one of the best parts about the Army War College is the contact with different professors and students representing a cross section of diverse nationalities. He said this experience has enabled him to generate a network of support.

In closing, he thanked his wife of 31 years, Marianne V. Stegmann, who has supported him throughout his career, and who now manages the Army Wife Foundation in Chile.

U.S. Army War College Archives - News Article - 13 May 2014