Carlisle Barracks, Pa. – Dunham Army Health Clinic will be closed until 1 p.m. on Friday, June 6 in order to provide parking for the Army War College Class of 2014 graduation ceremonies here.

The formal graduation ceremony of the U.S. Army War College Class of 2014 here Friday, June 6 at 9 a.m. on the historic parade ground will start with a faculty processional to seats in front of the Wheelock Bandstand where graduates will cross to receive congratulations by the Vice Chief of Staff of the Army Gen. John Campbell; the Commandant of the Army War College Maj. Gen. Tony Cucolo; and War College Provost Dr. Lance Betros.

Gen. John Campbell, 34th Army Vice Chief of Staff will be guest speaker for the Army War College graduation ceremony, and will celebrate the graduates achievements and remind them of the challenges ahead for them as they return to the Joint Force.

The graduating class represents the Joint Force: 385 students competitively selected from the joint U.S. military, federal agency, and multinational security environment: 216 Army officers, 14 Navy, 32 Air Force, 17 Marine Corps and one Coast Guard officer, representing Active, Reserve and National Guard. The Class includes 77 International Officers, and 28 senior civilians of federal agencies engaged in national security.

During more than 34 years of service, Campbell has commanded units at every level from platoon to division, with duty in Germany, Haiti, Iraq, Afghanistan, and the U.S. He has served as the Commanding General, 101st Airborne (Air Assault), Fort Campbell, Ky, and led the division as Combined Joint Task Force 101 during Operation Enduring Freedom. Most recently, Campbell was the Deputy Chief of Staff, G-3/5/7/ Headquarters, Department of the Army.

He holds a Bachelor of Science degree from the United States Military Academy at West Point, and a master's degree in Public Administration from Golden Gate University. He is also a graduate of the U.S. Army War College.

In case of inclement weather, gate signs will announce the decision to move the ceremony to Bliss Hall, with guest seating in Reynolds Theater, the Omar Bradley Room in Upton Hall and in Root Hall conference and seminar rooms. Handicapped seating will be in the Command Conference Room in Root Hall.
