

International Holocaust Remembrance Day

70 years after the holocaust, Carlisle Barracks remembers

US Army War College
Holocaust Remembrance Month Lecture Series
Mr. Charlie Brown
Justice and Accountability: International
Responsibilities Regarding Genocide
16 April, 1145-1245
Bliss Hall

Charlie Brown currently serves as a senior advisor in the Office Under Secretary for Policy in the U.S. Department of Defense, where he is responsible for implementing the DoD components of President Obama's initiative to integrate atrocity prevention and response into U.S. Policy.

THE UNITED STATES ARMY WAR COLLEGE
STRENGTH-WISDOM

PKSOI

Coinciding with the 70th anniversary of the April 1945 liberation of Auschwitz, two local observances of International Holocaust Remembrance Day are planned by the Peacekeeping and Stability Operations Institute, co-author of Mass Atrocity Response Operations handbooks.

The Army War College is collaborating with Dickinson College to share the impact of speaker Charlie Brown. A senior advisor in the Office of the Under Secretary of Defense for Policy, Brown will speak twice: April 16 from 11:45 a.m. to 12:45 p.m. in Bliss Hall on Carlisle Barracks, and that evening to a public audience from 7 to 9 p.m. at Dickinson College's Anita Tuvin Auditorium.

The United States Congress established the Days of Remembrance as the nation's annual commemoration of the Holocaust. Each year state and local governments, military bases, workplaces, schools, religious organizations, and civic centers host observances and remembrance activities for their communities.

The international community links Holocaust Remembrance Day to the Yom Hashoah, the anniversary of the Warsaw Ghetto Uprising.

Learn more about Holocaust remembrance at <http://www.ushmm.org/remember/days-of-remembrance>

U.S. Army War College Archives - News Article - 03 April 2015