

2009 Military Family Program calendar

Military Family Program calendar

More than half our Army is married, with more than a half-million spouses and 700,000 children, each one a precious gift who represents our future. Army Families help each other. They depend on each other, but in an era of persistent conflict the challenge grows with each deployment.

The Army recognizes the challenge, listens to Families and is taking action. Secretary of the Army Pete Geren, Army Chief of Staff Gen. George Casey, Jr., and Sgt. Maj. of the Army Kenneth Preston signed a covenant with Army Families.

The U.S. Army War College Military Family Program contributes to this ongoing commitment with three major objectives.

- Develop the physical, emotional, social, spiritual, and intellectual well being of the individual as a member of the Family.
- Reinforce relationships between military Family issues and readiness.
- Prepare students and spouses for roles as senior leaders in developing and implementing personal, unit, and community Family programs.
