

Free AHEC living history event this weekend

Free AHEC living history event this weekend

Visitors to the 2008 the "Market at Washingtonburg" talk with one of the living historians Sept. 20. More than 8,000 people came to the three-day event that showcased 18th century life. This years event will take place Sept. 18-20. file photo.

Sept. 16, 2009 -- The Army Heritage Trail will transformed into an 18th Century market Sept. 18-20 for the "Market at Washingtonburg," a living history event that gave a glimpse at life more than 200 years ago. This free, three-day event is open to the public and features sutlers, living historians and demonstrations on the Trail.

More than 300 living historians typically take part in the three-day Army Heritage and Education Center event, which traces the early history of Carlisle Barracks from the French and Indian War through the American Revolution when the Barracks was known as Washingtonburg.

Market at Washingtonburg Master Schedule

Friday, September 18, 2009 (Education Day)

Time	Event	Location
8:30	Parking Lot Opens to the Public	-
9:00	School Tours Begin	-
10:30	Demonstration at the 18 th Century Forge	Blacksmith Shop

11:00	Brett Walker: "Recruiting For St. Crispin's Army"	Speakers Tent
1:00	Ernie Cowan/Rick Keller: "British Rifles of the American Revolution"	Speakers Tent
2:00	Demonstration of 18 th Century Field Tactics	Public Demo Area
3:00	Demonstration at the 18 th Century Forge	Blacksmith Shop
3:30	Bill Reynolds: "Making the Perfect Weapon: The Use of a Rifling Machine"	Sutler Area
4:00	Drilling the Army	Public Demo Area
4:00	Roland Cadle: "Horn Making in 18 th Century America"	Speakers Tent
5:00	Program Closes

-

Saturday, September 19, 2009

Time	Event	Location
8:30	Parking Lot Opens to the Public	-
9:00	Program & Book Sale Open to the Public	-
9:30	Rich Fox: "Scientist to Statesman: The Life of Benjamin Franklin"	Speakers Tent
10:00	Demonstration at the 18 th Century Forge	Blacksmith Shop
11:00	Ernie Cowan/Rick Keller: "British Rifles of the American Revolution"	Speakers Tent
12:00	Mark Dubin/Art Snyder: "Wagonmasters and Their Inland Ships of Commerce"	Conestoga Wagon

1:00	Dr. Christine Swager: "How England Lost the South in the War for Southern Independence"	Ridgway Hall
2:00	Demonstration of 18 th Century Field Tactics	Public Demo Area
3:00	Demonstration at the 18 th Century Forge	Blacksmith Shop
3:30	Dave Troxell: "Rev. Samuel Davies - Paving The Way for Revolution"	Speakers Tent
4:00	Parade for the Commandant	Public Demo Area
4:30	Pam Blaha: "The Art of Using Natural Dyes"	Speakers Tent
4:30	Book Sale Closes
5:00	Program Closes

Sunday, September 20, 2009

Time	Event	Location
8:30	Parking Lot Opens to the Public	-
9:00	Program & Book Sale Open to the Public	-
10:00	Rich Fox: "Scientist to Statesman: The Life of Benjamin Franklin"	Speakers Tent
10:30	Demonstration at the 18 th Century Forge	Blacksmith Shop
11:00	Linda Zeigler: "Tools and Techniques of Food Preparation in the 18 th Century"	Sutler Area

12:00	Mark Dubin/Art Snyder: "Wagonmasters and Their Inland Ships of Commerce"	Conestoga Wagon
1:00	Mark Thomas: "The Fine Art of Silver Engraving"	Sutler Area
2:00	Book Sale Closes
2:00	Court Martial at Carlisle	Camp Area
3:00	Demonstration at the 18 th Century Forge	Blacksmith Shop
3:30	Brett Walker: "Supply & Demand, or Demanding A Supply?"	Speakers Tent
4:00	Demonstration of 18 th Century Field Tactics	Public Demo Area
5:00	Program Closes

Alternate Speaker –

Mike Slease: The French and Indian War and the Forbes Road – FRENCH & INDIAN CABIN

(Note: Schedule is subject to change as necessary.)

U.S. Army War College Archives - News Article - 16 September 2009