

Snowmobiling and Ski slope fun in one great deal

Love the snow? Act now to sign up for a memorable Presidents Day Weekend, Feb 12 - 15

Tuesday is the deadline to join the group heading north to "The East's Heaviest Snowfall!" -- Snow Ridge Ski area in upstate New York.

MWR has planned a double treat: a day of snowmobiling and a day on the slopes to ski or snowboard. The almost-all-expenses-paid trip includes bus travel to Fort Drum NY, Army Lodging at Fort Drum with breakfast, busing to and from snow activities, 90-minute snowmobile certification class [required by NY], snowmobile rental, ski or snowboard rental and li "I ski slowly but I'll be fast on a snowmobile," said Lindsey Carver, outdoor rec planner who packaged the snowmobile/ski trip with Fort Drum lodging for a real deal.

The small fee for the big package of travel, lodging, snowmobiling and ski slope fun is gets even smaller if you go with friends. You pay only lunch and dinner --

- Single: $325 per person
- Double: $275 per person
- Triple/Quad: $225 per person

The bus leaves Friday, Feb 12 at 6 am from the 632 Wright Avenue parking lot, and is scheduled to return Monday, Feb 15 at 7 pm.
