

Post Soldiers, employees recognized for dedication

Post Soldiers, employees recognized for dedication

Lt. Col. Janet Holliday, garrison commander, presents Capt. Joe Mickley and 1st Sgt. Carlos Runnels with a gift from students from the Belaire Elementary School thanking them for a recent class on how to care for the U.S. flag.

Feb. 12, 2010 -- Carlisle Barracks took time Feb. 9 to recognize the accomplishments of post

Soldiers, Civilians and contractors during the Quarterly Awards Ceremony at the LVCC.

- Sgt. Radouane Moukraj, CSL - Noncommissioned Officer of the Quarter
- Mark H. Olley, LVCC - Civilian Employee of the Quarter
- Ms. Donna L. Swauger, DPW - Commander's Award for Civilian Service
- Sgt. Radesha J. Dantzler, Chapel - USAG Certificate of Appreciation
- Ms. Susan Berrier, Skills Development Center - 25 Years Length of Service

- Ms. Julie K. Teague, DPTMS - 20 Years Length of Service
- Mr. Elton R. Manske, DHR - Lean Six Sigma Green Belt Certification
- Capt. Joe Mickley & 1st Sgt. Carlos Runnels - Recognition from Belaire Elementary School

The Visual Information Division of the Metro/Ciber/NEC team won four major International awards in 2009.

- Helen Musser's efforts on the Dean's A-Wing Mural earned Platinum recognition.
- Jason Percoco's "Operation Iceberg" hallway mural for DCLM earned a Gold Award.
- The Army War College Birthday/Historical perspective production earned Platinum recognition for Russell Hartman, Sam DeProspro and Kelly Schloesser.
- The 2009 Jim Thorpe Sports Day production earned Gold recognition for Travis Volz, Heath Freeland and Sam DeProspro.