

CBks Spouses' Club Feb. Program Outreach

Carlisle-area organizations to benefit from Carlisle Barracks Spouses Club donations

Suzanne Reynolds, Public Affairs Office

Melissa Manning (left) of Sadler Health Center, accepts a $500 check from Nancy Davis, CBSC Outreach Chairperson at the Spouses' Club program, Feb. 17.

Photo by Suzanne Reynolds

The Carlisle Barracks Spouses' Club presented outreach checks to Carlisle organizations during their February program, Wednesday, Feb. 17.

- $250 donation to Carlisle CARES (Combined Area Resource for Emergency Shelter) will be used to provide shelter to six families for one night.
- $500 donation will be used to buy table corner guards, car seats, cabinet latches, outlet covers and safety gates for the Sadler Health Center's Nurse Family Partnership Program, that links trained nurses with low-income, first-time mothers during pregnancy and until their child turns two years of age.
- $250 will be used to provide week-long summer art programs for at-risk youth at Hope Station and for the CONNECT program for at-risk teens.
- $500 will be used to purchase classroom materials for the English as a Second

Language program for the Employment Skills Center. Serving more than 300 adults with educational or employment skills needs

U.S. Army War College Archives - News Article - 18 February 2010