

Post launches new free YS afternoon bus schedule

You asked, we listened: Free bus service for Military Community

The new, free shuttle bus service will be welcome news for military families -- and for students and fellows living near Carlisle Barracks.

Youth Services kicks off a regular bus route schedule on Monday, March 1. Three weekday afternoon routes start March 1 to bring kids to Youth Services programs. "When we make it easier and safer to get to the YS, we make life better for our families," said Liz Knouse, acting director of Family & MWR programs.

Military ID card will be required. Children under 18 must have a parental permission slip, and will be issued a bus pass at the YS. YS is ready to issue bus passes Wednesday.

Questions about the route, the service or the kids? Call the YS at 245-4555, or -3801.

Coming soon: Saturday Shuttle will benefit the grown-ups

Others will benefit soon. Students and Fellows who live nearby post will find this the solution they're looking for on Saturdays when headed to the Library, the Gym, and other events in and around post. In a few weeks, the YS will introduce the Saturday schedule for free shuttle bus service. Keep your eyes on the Banner for the Saturday Shuttle schedule.
