

Women's History Month

Women's History Month to be Observed

Suzanne Reynolds, Public Affairs Office

"Writing Women back into History" is the theme of this year's Women's History Month observance which will be held on Wednesday, March 10, at the Post Chapel, 11:45 to 1 p.m.

Recently retired Lt. Col. Cheryl Solomon will be the guest speaker for this event. A U.S. Military Academy graduate, Solomon retired after twenty-two years of service as a military police officer. During her career, she served as the Brigade Executive Officer at the U.S. Army Disciplinary Barracks, Fort Leavenworth, Kan., and as a board member, board recorder and senior quality control officer to the Department of the Army Military Review Board at the Pentagon.

Solomon is now working on creating a non-profit organization where she can use her skills in coaching, counseling, and personal and organizational consulting, as well as continue her mission of helping people improve their lives.

Along with Solomon's presentation, there will be a book display, food and refreshments.