

Eight USAWC Class of 08 grads chosen for command

Air Force Col. Gerald Goodfellow

Eight USAWC Class of '08 Air Force grads chosen for command

March 17, 2010 -- A huge percentage of the Air Force officers from the 2008 Army War College class were recently chosen for command. Eleven of the 26 AF Officers from the 2008 AWC Class are headed to Command in the U.S. Air Force. Eight of them reunited recently at Maxwell AFB, Ala., where they attended the Air Forces Pre-Command Course.

Top Row Left to Right:

Col. Michael Katka – Vice Commander 386th Air Expeditionary Wing, Ali Al Salem, Kuwait

Col. Nathan Hill – Commander, 388th Operations Group, Hill AFB, UT

Col. Cynthia Brown – Commander 360th Recruiting Group, New Cumberland, PA

Col. William Tart – 432nd Operations Group, Creech AFB, NV.

Bottom Row Left to Right:

Col. Henri Lambert – Commander, 99th Security Forces Group, Nellis AFB, NV

Col. Gerald Goodfellow – Commander, 7th Operations Group, Dyess AFB, TX

Col. David Goldstein – Vice Commander, Space Systems Wing, Los Angeles, CA

Col. Russell Hula – Commander, 673 Civil Engineering Group, Elmendorf AFB, AK.

Not shown from 2008 Class but chosen for Command:

Col. Philippe Darcy – 56th Mission Support Group, Luke AFB, AZ

Col. Margaret Larezos – 350th Electronic Systems Group, Hanscom AFB, MA

Col. John Quintas – 48th Fighter Wing, Royal Air Force Lakenheath, England.

U.S. Army War College Archives - News Article - 17 March 2010