

Local Scout achieves highest honor

Thomas Zimmerman, Army War College Public Affairs Office

Local Scout achieves highest honor

Tyler William, (kneeling), son of Col. Tom and Vera Williams works on a 55 ½ foot brick and paver walkway between the post chapel and the fellowship hall that he completed for his Eagle Scout Project in July 2009. Courtesy photo.

April 1, 2010 -- Tyler Williams, son of Col. Tom and Vera Williams, received his Eagle Scout Award March 28 in ceremony at Carlisle Barracks.

To achieve this rank, an Eagle Scout Candidate must complete an extensive service project that the Scout plans, organizes, leads, and manages. In this case, Tyler, his fellow Boy Scouts and parents built a 55 ½ foot brick and paver walkway connecting the Army War College Memorial Chapel and the Fellowship Hall. Tyler, a junior at Carlisle High School, conducted his project from July 1 to 3, 2009. He completed his Eagle Scout Board of Review on Dec. 10, 2009.

The ceremony was attended by Congressman Todd Platts, State Senator Pat Vance, and Representative Will Gabig.

U.S. Army War College Archives - News Article - 03 April 2010