Dickinson College, Carlisle Barracks team up for Military Appreciation volleyball game

Dickinson College and College Barracks hosted the first of their Military Appreciation events last night at their volleyball game versus McDaniel College. Lt. Col. Sally Hannan, Carlisle Barracks Garrison Commander, served as an honorary team captain and Col. Jeff Greenwood, USAWC faculty sang the national anthem. Before the game military members, retirees, veterans and their families were recognized and all attendees received special pins to wear. Mark your calendars now for the next event Nov. 11 as Dickinson will host Ursinus at their last home football game at 1 p.m. See more photos at www.facebook.com/usawc
