

JTSD cycling route to cause road closures, detours April 27, residents asked to move vehicles

By Public Affairs Staff 27 April 2019

The race begins at Forbes and Ashburn, turns right onto Liggett, left onto Butler, left onto Marshall, left onto Barry, right onto Letort, which becomes Engineer Ave., left onto Flower, right onto Gibner, and continues back to the start.

RELATED LINKS

USAWC Facebook page

Cycling will cause the closure of Forbes Ave., Liggett Rd., Butler Rd., LeTort Ln., Marshall Ridge, Flower Rd., and Gibner Rd. on Saturday, April 27, from 6:45 a.m. to 8:15 a.m. Residents are asked to move vehicles off of roadways.

Jim Thorpe Sports Days will temporarily cause the closure of Forbes Ave., Liggett Rd., Butler Rd., LeTort Ln., Marshall Ridge, Flower Rd., and Gibner Rd. on Saturday, April 27, from 6:45 a.m. to 8:15 a.m. Carlisle Barracks residents, who live along the route, are asked to move vehicles off roadways. Race set-up for begins at 6 a.m.

Residents who live along the race route are asked to remove their vehicles from the streets on Friday night, April 26, in order to clean the roads and for rider safety during the event. Residents are asked to park in their driveways, garages or in the Collins Hall and Anne Ely parking lots.

The race begins at the intersection of Forbes Rd. and Ashburn Rd. across from the Fire Station. It then proceeds down Forbes Ave. in front of Young

Hall and turns right onto Liggett. It then turns left onto Butler until it meets Marshall Rd. and turns left onto Marshall Rd. It then turns left onto Barry and right onto Letort Ln., which becomes Engineer Ave. It takes a hard left onto Flower Rd. and turns right onto Gibner. It continues down Gibner until it arrives back at the starting point.

Be sure to come out Saturday morning and cheer on the Jim Thorpe Sports Days Cycling Teams as they compete in the relay race.

Find scores and updates at <https://www.facebook.com/USAWC/>